

PART 1

Hi, Sandy,

How are you? I'm fine, and I am also super excited that I will be staying at your place next week.

About the rock concert... As much as I'd love to go, I believe I'll be exhausted from the trip. So, is it okay if we hang out at home? And it'd be awesome to climb the mountains, but I sprained my ankle last month, and it still hurts.

I've heard that the Cats musical are in town, is it true? I love musicals, what do you think about it? Can we go?

I can't wait to see you!

Love, Patty

Source: <https://exam-seekers.com/2021/04/26/ee-025a-b1-preliminary-writing-part-1-writing-an-e-mail/>

PART 2

Home cinema or the big screen?

Have you ever cried at the cinema? Or have you watched a comedy and laughed until you cry?

I know many people who love animated or romantic films, but for me, there is nothing better than an amazing drama or adventure movie like 'Indiana Jones' because I'm a big fan of stories with fascinating plot.

In my opinion, watching a film at home isn't the same as going to the cinema to enjoy a great movie on a huge screen with popcorn and cola. If it wasn't so expensive, I would go every week.

Everybody loves films, I think you can enjoy them anywhere, even if not at the cinema, it's still Netflix!

Source: <https://engxam.com/handbook/how-to-write-an-article-b1-preliminary-pet/>